“It is an unusually extraordinary place. This land is endowed with many attributes. This Dharma center has been well established not through any effort of mine, but through the power of aspiration prayers that have been made [in the past].

Now I have grown old. My hope and objective is for this center to abide for as long as this country exists, for many hundreds and many thousands of years, indeed, for as long as sentient beings exist. Principally, it is the stupa and temple that I have created with this motivation.”

—H.E. Garchen Triptrül Rinpoche

Southwest Buddhafield Endowment Fund

In the Tibetan tradition, helping to create the foundation for something positive is considered to be a supreme root of virtue.

As your contributions create the cause for the Institute to remain for a very long time in the future, so the merit from whatever virtue is practiced at this place will continue, not only in this lifetime but in all our future lifetimes, until we attain enlightenment.

~ Garchen Rinpoche

The Endowment was established in 2007, with the blessing of H.E. Garchen Triptrul Rinpoche, as a skillful means of preserving this sacred institution, The Garchen Buddhist Institute in Chino Valley Arizona, USA.

Our goal is to build an endowment more than $2 million dollars. The annual interest income will be used to help defray the ongoing operating expenses of the Institute for as ever long as sentient beings remain.
